Password Manager for Mac - Password Wizard Mac Password Manager is free in the App Store and has been installed and recommended on every App Store page I can find. In fact, I haven't used the service since its October 2014 update and I didn't try again until it became free and open access on July 1st, 2016. There have been numerous versions of this tool over the years, from it at the time of its original release on July 5th, 2014 to iOS and Linux versions over the past four years. It is still one of the safest password managers on the App Store or Mac World that I've tried. It's fast and easy to use Password manager does a great job of keeping users safe when they're out of their computer's usual web browser.
